Malleolus from Emillio Moro, receives highest score at The Decanter Ribera del Duero tasting.

We've long been fan's of this estate and have stocked their eponymous Emillio Moro classic Ribera del Duero so it is fantastic to see this relatively young modern and forward thinking estate gain the international recognition it deserves. We expect this to sell out once Decanter readers get in on the act, so if Ribera is your thing, I'd be picking up a six pack for the wine rack as this will only get better with age.

Bodegas Emilio Moro's Malleolus de Sanchomartin confirms its place at the top. Malleolus de Sanchomartin, a single-vineyard bottling from Bodegas Emilio Moro in Ribera del Duero, now ranks in the top tier of the country's red wines.

"Wine is an art. If you know how to listen, it speaks to you, it lets you know when it needs racking and rest. It's just like a living creature that we have to understand, tend to and care for."

So said Emilio Moro, founder of the estate. Three generations later this belief is still upheld by José and Javier Moro. Based in the world famous village of Pesquera de Duero in the heart of Ribera del Duero the brothers believe that their wine has a life of its own and with each vintage a part of them is immortalized in it. "It evokes the land where it comes from". Eschewing traditional notions of classification like crianza and reserva, the family were eager create wines with personality and individuality. Expressions true to their vineyards and their family's heritage. Creating reds from their cherished Tinto Fino, a prized clone of Tempranillo, and more recently crafting Godello wines from Bierzo - vibrant whites that are as exciting and lively as their labels suggest.

Malleolus, is one of the most sublime Tempranillo wines from Bodegas Emilio Moro. Named in honour of the Pago de Sanchomartín, a vineyard located in Pesquera de Duero, which was planted in 1944. It is a wine with lovely varietal vocation but with the personality of the limestone soils. It stands out for being a powerful, elegant and persistent wine.

At 13.5% Abv - this is not a Parkerised block buster, but a more subtle interpretation of 100% new oak in both French & American for 18 months

Malleolus £275 per case of six

Emilio Morro £190 per case of six.
